

If Clothes COULD TALK

What the stars wear reveals a lot about what's on their minds

Our Expert Panel

Robert Verdi
Celebrity Stylist

Dr. Jenn Berman
Psychotherapist
on VH1's
Couples Therapy

Janet Giovanelli
Style Director,
Life & Style

Have YOUR SAY:
Go to bit.ly/yoursay
to submit your own comment.

DR. JENN:
"Sharon's still not afraid to demand attention. At 55, she has confidence that women half her age might envy. This says, 'I've still got it — and don't you forget it.'"

JANET:
"Step aside, young starlets, and let Sharon show you how it's done! Not only can this Hollywood vet snag a 27-year-old model boy toy beau, she can also rule the red carpet in a beaded Roberto Cavalli showstopper."

ROBERT:
"She's trying to defy her age. She knows her assets: Her boobs don't sag; her arms don't look fat. But if this dress were short, she'd look like an old hooker. Here she just looks like an old diva."

YOUR SAY
"From all those makeup-free paparazzi pics, it looked like Sharon was aging like everyone else. She sure proved us wrong!"
— KELLY F. HOBOKEN, N.J.

I'm 55 and Fabulous

Sharon Stone upstaged younger starlets at the Cannes International Film Festival on May 21